Pre-Lease Abstraction

Alpha helps Lease Abstraction Team to translate multilingual leases into English. Complete lease or key information to be translated, else create a summary in a language different from the source document, we can help.

Volume & Quality consciousness?

Whether the lease documents run into several pages, sometimes hundreds, we've the multilingual resources to handle it. The translated documents are then reviewed by QC personnel, who're experienced all through the years in dealing with Real Estate terminologies. All the dates, dollars & other key details are double checked before final delivery.
